

Jean Trudel, Executive Director
Cercle de Paix
Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Jean Trudel is an award winning producer/director, and has produced many "Docu-Variety Specials" for television.

It was while doing research for his latest documentary film, that he realized that there was no one in Canada promoting UN's "International Day of Peace". He put his film on hold and created Cercle de Paix - Circle of Peace, a Canadian NGO promoting the IDP and a "Culture of Peace" as defined by UNESCO.

His documentary film is still a "work in progress", and his NGO is well set on its Peace mission. see: <http://www.circleofpeace.ca> <<http://www.circleofpeace.ca/>>

Cercle de Paix - Circle of Peace is a member and representative of Pathways To Peace and a Culture of Peace Initiative (CPI). He also is Coordinator of the "International Day of Peace - NGO Committee at the UN" Peace Teams.
